SFJCF YAD Board, Marketing Chair

“I’ve had the pleasure of working with Gabriela this year on a Community Board for the Jewish Federation of San Francisco. Gabriela took on a newly designed marketing role with the goal of increasing visibility for the organization. I’ve been thoroughly impressed with her creativity and dedication as well as the quality of her work. She’s an excellent writer and self starter. Gabriela has mapped our goals to specific projects such as a blog, a newly designed newsletter and a marketing video. On each she has taken initiative, brought in others as needed and delivered a fantastic end project.”

Sharon Goldstein, Founder, SYG LLC

“I could not have asked for a more top-notch Marketing Chair than Gabriela. After our initial meeting to plan out our Marketing strategy for the year, she jumped into action, and motivated her entire board of 30 individuals to contribute essays for our blog. With Gabriela’s careful editing, these essays have become true gems of our blog, bringing in above-average web traffic, and helping the community truly understand the important work that we do. Throughout our all of our partnered projects, Gabriela has truly been a pleasure to work with, and a trustworthy partner.”

Joy Powers, Online Marketing Manager, Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, the Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties

“Gabriana was a marketing dynamo in her position of Marketing Chair. She was organized and strategic, and started off by putting together a complete marketing plan with a strong focus on Internet marketing and social media. Gabriela single-handedly managed, edited and focused the direction of the first-ever YAD Blog. Additionally, Gabriela also lent her creative vision to the development of many marketing projects such as promotional and informational products. Gabriela is a dedicated perfectionist who provided extraordinary marketing support to YAD while maintaining her full-time position.”

Abra Annes, Young Adult Division Director, Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, The Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties

San Francisco Chronicle, Marketing Writer/Editor/Project Manager

“Gabriana is strong, detail-oriented writer/editor. Her exceptional organizational skills were a huge asset in maintaining our challenging production schedules, and her proactivity and good humor were always welcome on deadline. Her skill and enthusiasm would be a boon to any creative team.”

Michael Ansaldo, Custom Publications Manager, San Francisco Chronicle

“In the short time Gabriela has worked at the San Francisco Chronicle/SFGate she has tackled challenging assignments and taken them beyond the scope of the project. She is a sharp and outside the box thinker able to take on both creative and editorial sides of a project. Working closely with designers/photographers she is able to bring together the written word with a creative vision. Gabriela is comfortable in taking on writing assignments outside of her experience. She is able to research new writing assignments quickly and accurately. She is also a great project manager and is able to work well with other departments, outside resources and clients in keeping projects on schedule. Gabriela has a lot of drive, determination and enthusiasm that will take her and the company she will work for far. I have enjoyed working with Gabriela and would recommend and endorse her to future employers.”

Danny Lee, Graphic Designer, The San Francisco Chronicle | SFGate.com

“Gabriana is a creative writer and original thinker who exceeds all expectations. She has a strong grasp of the English language, is a whiz when it comes to grammar (I rely on her often to proofread my materials) and has the ability to communicate in an effective manner. She also possesses a great sense of humor, which has helped her form strong relationships with co-workers. Bottom line: she’s a joy to work with!”

Barry Katzmann, Marketing Writer/Project Manager, The San Francisco Chronicle | SFGate.com

“An organized, speedy and thorough writer and editor, Gabriela is an eager learner and an enthusiastic soul with a hunger for whatever is out there that needs to be discovered. Gabriela is skilled at editorial and writing work, and thrives on interaction with others (read: bakes birthday cakes!).”

LINKEDIN RECOMMENDATIONS FOR GABRIANA MARKS

“Gabriana has edited my Chronicle stories for the last 2 years, and is thorough, professional and easy to work with. It's always nice to have an editor that's two steps ahead...”

Richard Berman, Owner, VerbFactory

“Gabriana Marks is a bright and talented asset to any team she joins. Diligent, self-motivated and a good communicator, she works hard and works well with her colleagues. Gabriela expresses an admirable eagerness to grasp the big picture, expand her knowledge base and hone her skills.”

Angelina Acevedo, Media and Public Relations Specialist, The San Francisco Chronicle | SFGate.com

“Gabriana is a very capable, very competent writer, and all around highly productive member of our team. I'm delighted to work with her everyday.”

Henry Ford, Vice President/Advertising, The San Francisco Chronicle | SFGate.com

KCBS, Writer

“Gabriana is a detail oriented writer, who is comfortable working under deadlines and getting information out quickly and accurately. She is creative and flexible, adept with new technologies and a joy to be around in a sometimes stressful environment!”

Margie Shafer, Reporter/Anchor, KCBS 740 AM and kcbs.com

SFJCF, Campaign Administrative Coordinator

“In my work as a Business Systems Analyst at the Jewish Community Federation I was pleased to work with Gabriela. As Campaign Administrative Coordinator, Gabriela was very creative and collaborative and could always be counted upon to stay until the job was completed. She is very detail oriented and responsive to the needs of the customers and management as well as handling interdepartmental issues. I would recommend her highly for any position she should be seeking.”

Barbara Samuelson, Business Systems Analyst, Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, The Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties

“I worked with Gabriela at The Federation (JCF). She worked with my team as a liaison for her department. Gabriela is very professional and has superb go-getter attitude and strong customer-facing skills. I have no hesitation in recommending her to any future employer.”

Ryan Fernandes, Chief Information Officer, Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, The Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties

“Gabriana would be an asset to any organization. She has the necessary admin skills to get the job done, is an excellent multi-tasker and is a very pleasant person to deal with overall. She was my go-to admin at the Federation as she was located at the main office and I was in a satellite office, pretty much by myself. I was very dependent on her to keep me in the loop as to what was going on over there.”

Rachel Cauteruccio, Campaign Admin Assistant, Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco, The Peninsula, Marin and Sonoma Counties

KTLA, CyberGuy Editorial Intern

“Gabriana excelled at every task set in front of her while contributing extraordinary time and creativity into growing our CyberGuy media brand and working on editorial production deadlines in television, print and interactive. Well beyond standard duties of an intern, Gabriela proved herself a talented writer, editor and storyteller who is also great with people. We instinctively knew that one day we'd all either see her rise to profession fame or be working for her. Obviously, that day is upon us.”

Kurt Knutsson, CEO/Founder “CyberGuy” brand, Tribune Company KTLA-TV Ch. 5/The WB
